

The Confucius Institute in Atlanta is sponsoring a panel discussion on the use of instructional technology in Chinese classrooms at the annual Southeast Conference of the Association for Asian Studies (SEC/AAS) sponsored by Emory University. The CI has made arrangement with conference organizers to waive the registration fee for GA Chinese language teachers who wish to attend the CI sponsored session. Please identify yourself as a GA Chinese teacher to the CI representative on site at the meeting room for admission.

For details of the conference, please visit: <http://www.uky.edu/Centers/Asia/SECAAS/>

Conference location: Emory Conference Center
Time: Jan. 17, 2009 @ 2:15pm

SESSION 3, SATURDAY 2:15 P.M.

Panel 7

Teaching Chinese for the 21st Century - Technology and Beyond

Chair: Hong Li (Emory University)

Xiaoliang Li (Georgia Institute of Technology)
A Cognitive Approach to Teaching Chinese

Yu Li (Emory University)
Multimedia Facilitated Learning Outside the Chinese Language Classroom

Hong Li (Emory University)
Multi Media-Facilitated Group Projects in Chinese Language Classrooms

Zhengbin Lu (Spelman College)
Making Power Point more Powerful in the Chinese Classroom: Some Design Principles