

China Today:

Cultural Inheritance, Changes, and Challenges

A Seminar for Educators Who Teach about China

The Georgia Chinese Language Educators group (GCLE) and the Kennesaw State University Confucius Institute will host a seminar on current cultural trends in China. Professor Xu Peng from Renmin University in Beijing China will lecture on Chinese cultural legacies, changes, and challenges. The seminar will examine the new shifts in Chinese values and belief systems and analyze the causes behind these changes from a historical perspective. The impact of fast economic and social development on modern Chinese life style will also be discussed. This is a valuable opportunity for Chinese language and cultural educators to gain an in-depth understanding of the multiple facets of Chinese culture and society. The Seminar will be conducted in Chinese.

Saturday, April 11, 2009

10:00am to 12:00pm

The Lovett School
Upper School Student Lounge

(www.lovett.org)

Refreshments will be provided

Cost for non GCLE members - $5.00

(GCLE members – free)

Please register by e-mailing Betty Hu at huixinghu@gmail.com

www.gcle.org